Exploring new frontiers in digital transformation

| Collaborating with us

BBD has been at the forefront of providing software development and application design solutions for over 36 years. We've helped the likes of banks, government institutions, insurance companies and telecommunication firms get their mission-critical systems online - we can do the same for you.

We are committed to simplifying our clients' lives, and enabling their business through technology.

By using our extensive knowledge of legacy systems, our core acceleration framework - Vanguard, our quick start tool boxes alongside a deep enthusiasm for the latest and greatest technology, we've cultivated an approach to integrated software implementations that we like to call 'Combined Intelligence'.

Services & expertise

As your software partner, we deliver solutions that make your organisation run seamlessly

Combining deep cross sector experience with the latest innovations, we create sought-after tech solutions and guidance while offering thorough support that is tailored to what your organisation needs to meet strategic business goals.

Digital strategy

Starting with an analysis of your technological and business landscape, we create and integrate new and existing solutions that will optimise your business processes.

Tech & business consulting

Our experts help you realise your business strategy through technology. We offer digital health assessments and advise on the best approach and tech to keep you at the forefront of innovation.

Cloud enablement

As a Microsoft Azure and AWS Advanced Partner with Well-Architected and CloudFront Global Content Delivery Network capabilities, we can develop a reliable, secure and scalable solution for your environment.

Software development

We design and implement software that will optimise and automate your differentiated business strategy. We don't sell products, we create tech solutions that solve individual business problems.

Systems integration

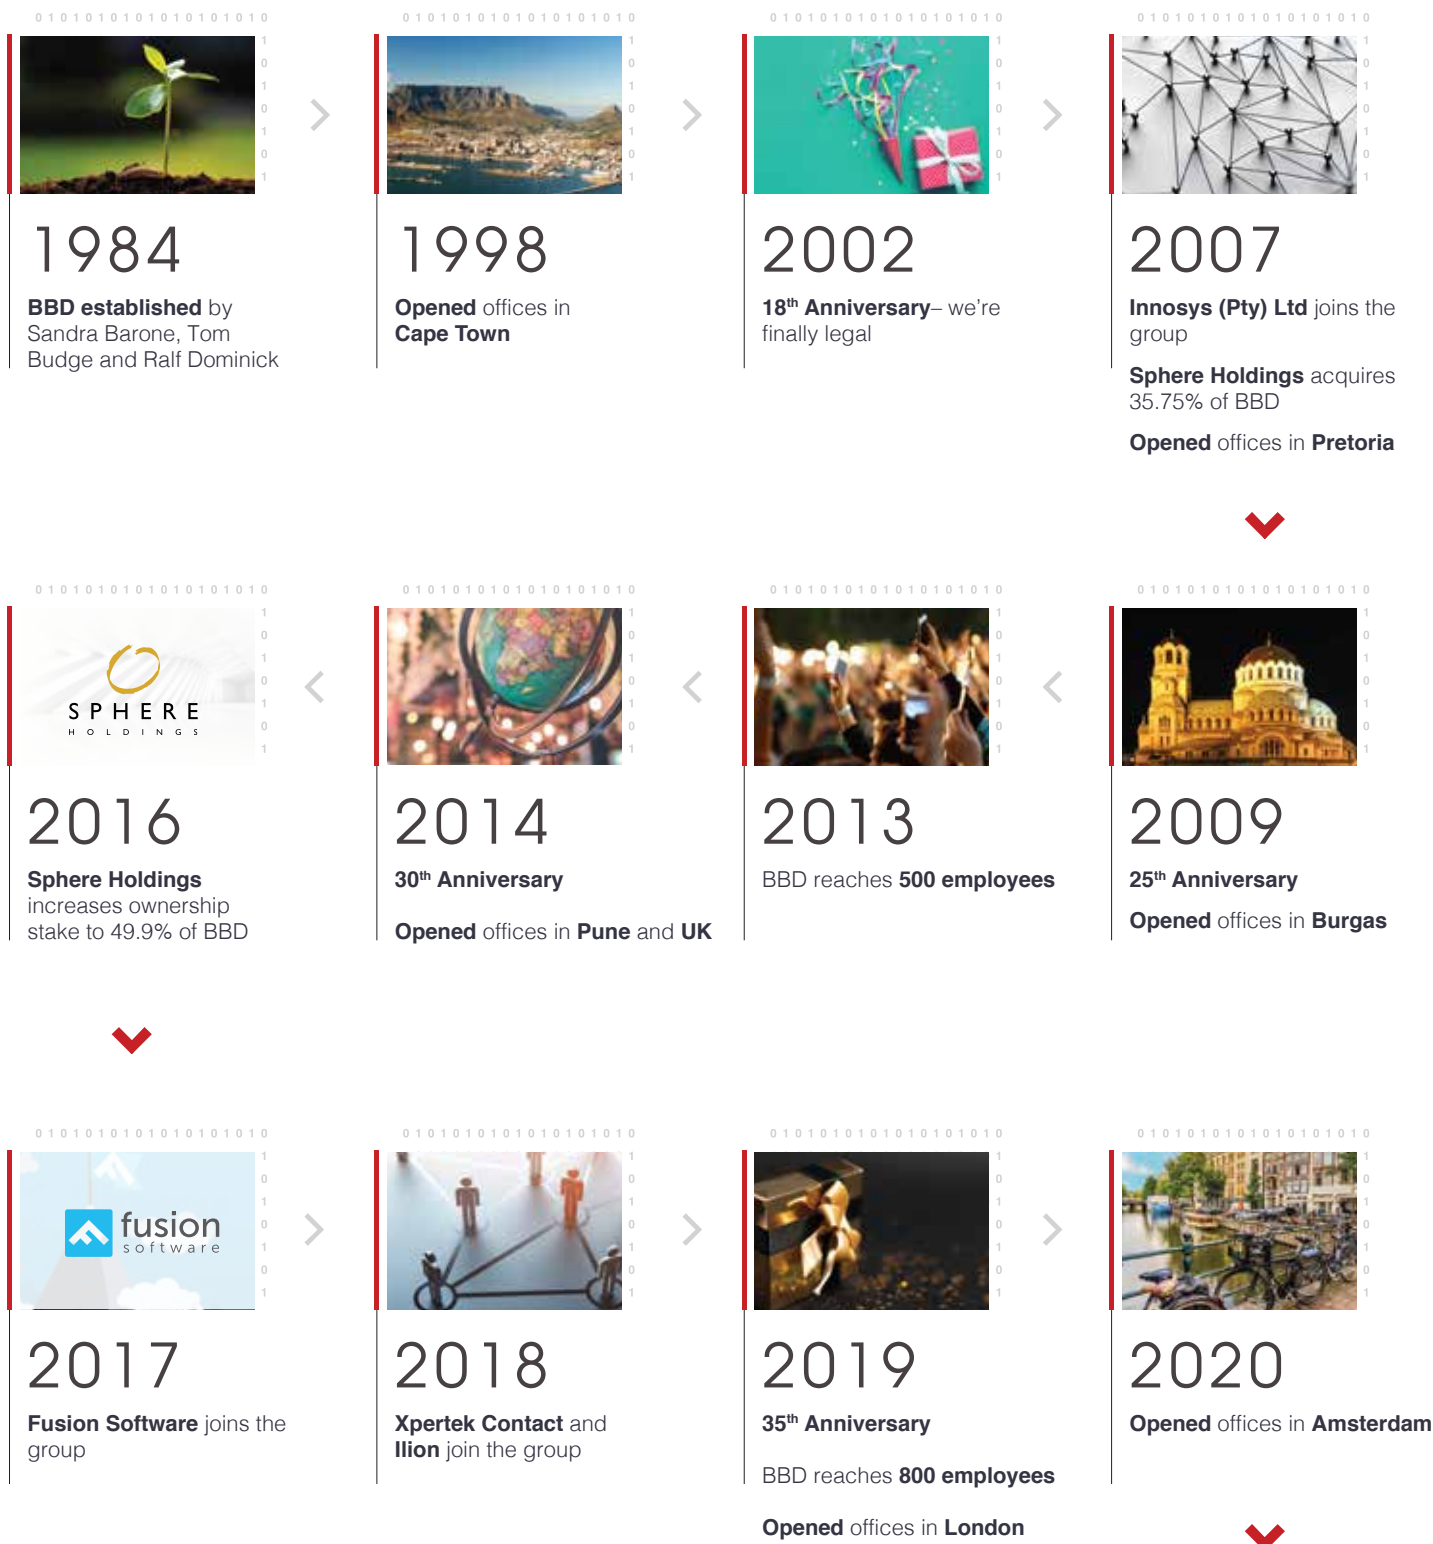

As tech constantly evolves, so too must your solutions. We are specialists at integrating new and existing platforms into your environment to increase operational spend and reduce costs.

Maintenance & support

We employ best practice techniques to keep your system streamlined and stress free. We maximise your programmes, increase system productivity, reduce downtime and ensure a stable digital environment.
